Approved For Release 2001/12/04 CIA-RDP82-00457R008 CCUNTRY Grant (Sovict Some) CONFIDENTIAL REPORT NO TONIC brint-Hinderslebon Airfield. XIX XIX DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED LATE OBTAINED LATE OBTAINED LATE OBTAINED LATE PREPARED 22 Ask ust 1973 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS REMARKS 2. Soviet convicts were observed working in each shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three groups of 180 non each and were quartered in three torporary buildings about 30 meters apart northways of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxinay,  Accombly, Corman convicts also worked at the field. Sinteen divided the field for the first time on the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxinay,  Accombly, Corman convicts also worked at the field. Sinteen divided leaves the convicts also worked the field. Sinteen divided leaves the convicts and three at the groups of the field. Five were in operation, were seen at the field. About 10 to 12 damp-cars were one under each divised locopolity. Since the nonrow-gar field railway trackage was extended considerably, source assured that the soil required for grading was to be had led from a Chatance. Two motor reliars were continually used for grading. For was still tein done in three shifts. The marking sites are calling about 10 to 12 damp-cars were confidence as the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.  25X1C Corment. Same source previously remarked that only 120 leborers worked in each stiff the total of the proviously remarked that only 120 leborers worked the consecution of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed. * Corment. Same source previously remarked that only 120 leborers worked the marked at any or			CLASSIFICATION STRUCTURE OF THE PROTECTION OF		#,
TOPIC brant-mindersteam Afficial. EVALUATION FLACE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OF CONTENT DATE OBTAINED REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a TYPE) REMARKS 1. The number of laborary at Brant-Bindersteben sirfield was increased considerable between 10 and 2 July 1951. A work force of 350 German ann access was repeatedly observed working in each shift. * 2. Sewiet convicts were observed working in each shift. * 2. Sewiet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. Tey were siviled into targe groups of 180 non each and were quartered in three temperary buildings about 30 sectors gark northwost of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxinay,  Accently, Corman convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifunger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwostern section and three at the coutheastern section of the field. Sixteen desay 10 coencitives 12 of which were gentimelly in operation, were seen at the field. Most 10 to 12 damp-cars were could at each diosel locomotives. Since the answer-carge field reliagy treed for grading was to be field consultive. Since the answer-carge field reliagy treed for grading was to be field consultive. Since the answer-carge field reliagy treed for grading was to be field. The staking cites were actioned to the field. The staking cite as being done at the northwostern section of the field. The staking cite were formed at night to section of the field. The staking cite were formed and the field. The staking cite were formed at the field. The staking cite were formed and the fields, formed that only 120 laborers worked in each shift up to 7 July 1950. Cornent. Same source previously reported that only 120 laborers worked in each shift up to 7 July 1950. Cornent. It may sate that, upon completion of runnay construction at the corner of the field. The staking cite were engaged in construction work. CORNET. It was also reported from cornence arrificles, constructio	3		Approved For Release 2001/12/04 : CIA-RDP82-00457R008		ν
EVALUATION FLACE OSTAINED DATE PREPARED 22 Agreet 1972. DATE OSTAINED DATE OF CONTENT DATE OSTAINED DATE PREPARED 22 Agreet 1972. REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. The number of laborers at Enfurt-Binderslabon sirfield was increased considerably between 10 and 23 July 1981. A work force of 350 German new some was repeatedly observed working in each shift.  2. Sowiet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 10 July. They were studied into have croups or 180 non each and were quartered in three terrorary buildings about 30 retors apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxinup,  Accordity, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 greb cranes (Greifagner) were counted at the field. Prive were in operation, were seen at the field, Bout 10 to 12 damp-orar reto counted to each diesel locatedive. Since the narrow-que field relieve trackage was extended consistedly, some assume that the soil required for grading was to be he led from a classance. Two noter relieve were continually used for grading. Sork was still being fone in three chifts. The twrking risks were 11 liminated at night. East of the rock was being done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runnay was not observed.  25XIC School Sorten to 7 July 1950.  Correct. It was also reported from enreuchen airfield that confidence were engaged in construction work.  Correct. It was also reported from enreuchen airfield that confidence is runnay will begin to farmer-linear struction at the field.  Correct. It was also reported from enreuchen airfield that confidence is runnay will begin to farmer-linear struction of a runnay construction at the farmer-linear struction of a runnay will begin to farmer-linear struction at the farmer-linear struction of a					Personal of the Second St. Ann
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OBTAINED DATE OBTAINED DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 22 haves 1971 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Edindershobs airfield was increased considerably between 10 and 25 duly 1951. A work force of 350 German sen one women was repeatedly observed working in each shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into these proupe of 180 non each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the textway.  secently, German convicts also worked at the field. Sixten dissel locantives 12 of which were continually in operation at the northwestern section and three about no the field. Sixten dissel locantives 12 of which were could to each dissel locantive. Since the northwester field reliably tracking was ovtened considerably, source assume that the self required for grading was ontened considerably, source assume that the self required for grading was ontened considerably, source assume that the self required for grading was ontened considerably, source assume that the self required for grading was ontened considerably, source assume that the self required for grading was ontened considerably, source assume that the self required for grading was ontened considerably source assume that the self required for grading was onto the field. The taking off of a runway was not observed, see 25XIC 25XIC Comment, Same source previously received that only 120 laborers worked in construction work. Comment, Same source previously received that only 120 laborers worked in construction work. Comment, Same source previously received that only 120 laborers worked in construction work. Comment, Same source previously received that only 120 laborers worked in construction work. Comment, Same source previously received that only 120 laborers worked in construction work	5 k 1X		and the second to the second s	riverdana caran sassa s	p-Mada, richterSpräge derent, de der
DATE OF CONTENT. DATE OFTANED DATE PREPARED 22 Aw ust 1971 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 8 MPE) REMARKS 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Binderslobs airfield was increased considerably bottoms 10 and 2 duly 1971. A work forms of 350 German men and somen was repeatedly observed working in cach shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. Tey were divided into turne proups of 180 moments and were quartered in three tomorary buildings about 10 returns spart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway,  Recently, bornan convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July 10 grab crames (Greifingger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation, were seen at the field, flow to 10 to 12 dumn-max* were could the each diseal locomotive, Since the narrow-gange field reliny treelage we extended conside ably, source assumed that the poll required for grading were extended conside ably, source assumed that the goal required for grading was to be he led from a distance. Five noter relices were continuity treelage we extended conside ably, source assumed that the goal required for grading was to be he led from a distance. Five noter relices were continuity treelage with the set of the working of the production of the field. The staking off of a runney was not observed.  25XIC  Comment. Same source previously presented that only 120 laborers worked in each shifts up to 7 July 1950.  Comment. Firsts, Telescon producting, Friescon or itersolung entitleds, construction of a runney will begin pt Trans-Bindersleben airfield.	25X 1C	IATIO	DI AGE OCTABLES		Service (Service)
DATE OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 22 Awast 125 REFERENCES PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. a NYPE) REMARKS 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Bindersloben sirfield was increased considerably between 10 and 25 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was recededly observed working in each shift.* 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three groups of 180 non each and were quartered in three torporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taximay.  Recently, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sinteen discal becomitives 12 of which ware gentimately in operation, were seen at the field. Most 10 to 12 dump-our were could to each diseal loconcitive. Since the norrow-gent field reliantly breakage was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was on the field. 25X10  Comment	1		CONT. I AND WE SEE THE		E.Zho o e e
REFERENCES PAGES 1. ENCLOSURES (No. a NYE) REMARKS SOURCE 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Bindersloben sirfield was increased considerably between 10 and 25 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was rejectedly observed working in each shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. Tieg were divided into three groups of 180 non each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taximay,  fecently, Cerman convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestorn section and there at the scattoned were seen at the field. Sinteen discal becometive 12 of which ware continually used each discal becometive. Since the narrow-garge field reliably trackage was extended considerably, source assumed that the gold required for grading was extended considerably, source assumed that the gold required for grading was seen at the field. The other reliables were called for grading was seen at the field was since the narrow-garge field reliably trackage was extended considerably, source assumed that the gold required for grading was considerably source assumed that the gold required for grading was considerably source assumed that the field was present the narrow-garge field reliably source for grading was construction of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed, see a final state of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed, see a final state that the northwestern seed in the field was increased at the northwestern seed in the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed, see a final state that the northwestern seed in the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed, see a final state of the seed as a seen in terfurt. Comment. Same accuracy previously recorded that only 120 leborers worked to the seed of the seen and the field. The stakin	j .				a t
PAGES 1 ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) REMARKS 1. The number of laborers at Enfurt-Bindersloben airfield was increased considerably between 10 and 2 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and nomen was repeatedly observed working in each shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three proups of 180 mon each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxinay.  According field. Five were in operation at the northwestorn section and three at the field. Five were in operation, were seen at the field. Most 10 to 12 damp-cars were coulded at the field. Sinteen discal locations in were seen at the field. Most 10 to 12 damp-cars were coulded a each closel located ably, source assumed that the field required for grading was one has led from a distance. Five motor reliars were confuncilly used for grading was one to be has led from a distance. Five motor reliars were sendantly used for grading was one to be the led from a distance. Five motor reliars were sendantly used for grading was one to be field. The chaking off of a runway was not observed.  25XIC * * * * * *           	3 X 1A	· - · · ·	Seasons (2/11 by 1916) If the bear among this control of the bear among the bear and the bear among the bear am
SOURCE 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Bindersloben airfield was increased considerably between 10 and 2; July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was repeatedly observed working in each shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into twee proups of 180 men each and were quartered in three tenorary bulldings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway.  Accently, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestorn section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sixteen discal locencities 12 of which were gentimally in operation, were seen at the field. About 10 to 12 tamp-are were couled to each discal locencities. Since the narrow-gare field relimy treetage was extended considerably, source assumed that the soil required for grading was to be had led from a distance. Five motor reliers were continually used for grading. Fork was still telm; done in three shifts, The triing size were 11 luminated at night. Local to the work was boing done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.  25X1C * * * * * * *	1		製品を含むされた。 日本日本の大学 1200年、日本日本の大学 1200年 (1200年) 1200年 (120	ere j
SOURCE 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Bindersloben airfield was increased considerably between 10 and 23 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was repeatedly observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three groups of 180 mon each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway.  Accently, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sixten diocal locencities 12 of which were each diocal locencity were seen at the field. Mount 10 to 12 dump-cars were counted to each diosel locencity. Since the narrow-gange field railway trackage was extended considerably, source assumed that the soil required for grading was to be halled from a cistance. Five motor railway were continually used for grading. For was still being done in three shifts. The working sites were illuminated at night. West of the work was being done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.   * * * * *	PAGES	`	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
SOURCE 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Bindersloben airfield was increased considerably between 10 and 23 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was repeatedly observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three groups of 180 mon each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway.  Accently, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sixten diocal locencities 12 of which were each diocal locencity were seen at the field. Mount 10 to 12 dump-cars were counted to each diosel locencity. Since the narrow-gange field railway trackage was extended considerably, source assumed that the soil required for grading was to be halled from a cistance. Five motor railway were continually used for grading. For was still being done in three shifts. The working sites were illuminated at night. West of the work was being done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.   * * * * *	REMA	RKS_			-
SOURCE 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Bindersloben airfield was increased considerably between 10 and 23 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was repeatedly observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three groups of 180 mon each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway.  Accently, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sixten diocal locencities 12 of which were each diocal locencity were seen at the field. Mount 10 to 12 dump-cars were counted to each diosel locencity. Since the narrow-gange field railway trackage was extended considerably, source assumed that the soil required for grading was to be halled from a cistance. Five motor railway were continually used for grading. For was still being done in three shifts. The working sites were illuminated at night. West of the work was being done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.   * * * * *			- VAINA NAV) v 	100 marin 100 ma
SOURCE 1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Bindersloben airfield was increased considerably between 10 and 23 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was repeatedly observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three groups of 180 mon each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway.  Accently, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sixten diocal locencities 12 of which were each diocal locencity were seen at the field. Mount 10 to 12 dump-cars were counted to each diosel locencity. Since the narrow-gange field railway trackage was extended considerably, source assumed that the soil required for grading was to be halled from a cistance. Five motor railway were continually used for grading. For was still being done in three shifts. The working sites were illuminated at night. West of the work was being done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.   * * * * *	-	 	Mar. TRHAM.		ائىرىنىڭ ئاكىرىسىد ئاكىرىسىد
1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Binderslebsn sirfield was incressed considerabl; between 10 and 23 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was repeatedly observed working in each shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three proups of 180 men each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway,  Recently, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sixteen diesel locentives 12 of which were couldn't each diesel locentive. Since the narrow-gauge field railway treelage was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was to be halled from a distance. Five motor rollers were continually used for grading was to be halled from a distance. Five motor rollers were continually used for grading was still being done in three shifts. The working sites were 11 luminated at night. Lost of the work was being done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.  25X1C * * * * * 	X1X				me 15.5
1. The number of laborers at Erfurt-Binderslebsn sirfield was incressed considerabl; between 10 and 23 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was repeatedly observed working in each shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three proups of 180 men each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway,  Recently, German convicts also worked at the field. 3. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. Five were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sixteen diesel locentives 12 of which were couldn't each diesel locentive. Since the narrow-gauge field railway treelage was extended conside ably, source assured that the soil required for grading was to be halled from a distance. Five motor rollers were continually used for grading was to be halled from a distance. Five motor rollers were continually used for grading was still being done in three shifts. The working sites were 11 luminated at night. Lost of the work was being done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.  25X1C * * * * *  ably between 10 and 23 July 1951. A work force of 350 German men and women was repeatedly observed working in each shift. * 2. Soviet convicts were observed working at the field for the first time on 19 July. They were divided into three groups of 180 men each and were quartered in three temporary buildings about 30 meters apart northwest of the field. This was in the vicinity of the taxiway.  Accently, German convicts also worked at the field. Bit the field. Five were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the southeastern section of the field. Sixteen diesel locacitives 12 of which were continually in operation, were seen at the field. Mout 10 to 12 tung-cars were coulded each diesel locansitive. Since the newrow-cars field railway trackage was extended conside ably, source assumed that the soil required for grading was to be halled from a clistance. Five motor relians were continually used for grading. Fork was still being done in three shifts. The turking sites were illuminated at night. Lost of the work was being done at the northwestern section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.  25X1C     Comment. Same source previously reported that only 120 leborers worked in each shift up to 7 July 1950.      Comment.  Comment.         	SOUR	CE
25X1C Someont. Same source previously reported that only 120 laborers worked in each shift up to 7 July 1950. X1C Someont. It was also reported from erneuchen airfield that Soviet convicts were engaged in construction work. X1C Someont. It appears that, upon completion of runway construction at the struction of a runway will begin at Erfurt-Bindersleben airfield.		3.	on 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. On 20 July, 10 grab cranes (Greifbagger) were counted at the field. were in operation at the northwestern section and three at the souther section of the field. Sixteen diesel locanotives 12 of which were in operation, were seen at the field. About 10 to 12 dump-cars were each diesel locanotive. Since the negrou-gauge field railway tracker	Five easter ntime cour	icts n ally led to
X1C in each shift up to 7 July 1950.  Comment. It was also reported from erneuchen airfield that Soviet convicts were engaged in construction work.  Comment. It appears that, upon completion of runnay construction at the Ternouchen, Terbst, Telzow, Puetnitz, Triesen or Herseburg airfields, construction of a runway will begin at Triumt-Bindersleben airfield. CONFIDENTIAL	25X1C		ing. Nork was still being done in three shifts. The working sites willuminated at night. Lost of the work was being done at the northwe section of the field. The staking off of a runway was not observed.	for g	rad-victs were engaged in construction work. * Comment. It appears that, upon completion of runway construction at the Terneuchen, Terbst, Telzow, Puetnitz, Triesen or Berseburg airfields, construction of a runway will begin at Triurt-Bindersleben airfield. CONFIDENTIAL	25X1A 5X1C	林	in each shift up to 7 July 1950. Comment. It was also reported from terneuchen airfield that So
Management and the property of the second se	5X1C	装 涂长	Comment. It appears that, upon completion of runway constructing vernouchen, Zerbst. Telzow. Puctnitz. Priesen or Regolura sinfields.	on at	the
Management and the property of the second se
Management and the property of the second se
Management and the property of the second se			CONFIDENTIAL
			Management of the state of the Document No02

	No Change In Class.
1	D-since #84
	Glass, Charged To: TS S (6)
Approved For Release 2001/12/04 : CIA-RI	Author HR 79-2/28 By: 029
Approved For Release 2001/12/04 : CIA-RI	P8200457R008600140002-4